

Eunice Lancaster is a business administration graduate and a member of the Chartered Institute of Marketing and Chartered Institute of Personnel Development. Eunice has 16 years experience in the social enterprise sector and 5 years in the private sector. Over the last eight years, Eunice has specialised in working in financial inclusion including credit unions, money advice organisations and CDFIs. She has been the General Manager of DSL for the last five years and has led DSL during expansion across Scotland.

Previously Eunice has been a Director for the Community Development Finance Institution (CDFI), a director of SCUDA (Strathclyde Credit Union Development Agency) and a director of the Coach House Trust. Eunice has also served as a Minister appointed member of the Scottish Credit Union Partnership